Tasmanian Aboriginal culture

Hobart is a place that recognises and celebrates Tasmanian Aboriginal people, history and culture, working together towards shared goals. The City of Hobart's Aboriginal Commitment and Action Plan sets out the City's commitment and approach to working with Aboriginal people.

We encourage our grant recipients to acknowledge and engage with The Tasmanian Aboriginal community in the activities we support.

Acknowledgement of Country and/or Welcome to Country Both a Welcome to Country and an Acknowledgement of Country recognise the continuing connection Aboriginal people have to their land. Traditionally used as a way to grant permission to cross country boundaries, these remain important symbolic gestures today.

Some Aboriginal people will feel uncomfortable attending an event where no Welcome or Acknowledgement is offered and so it is important to consider whether providing one is appropriate.

These ceremonies and statements offer a valuable moment to reflect and consider the 40 000+ years of history and culture in this place and to pay respect to Aboriginal people.

Select formalities that the activity will include in relation to Tasmania's Aboriginal heritage. *

- ☐ Welcome to Country
- ☐ Acknowledgement of Country
- ☐ Both an Acknowledgement of Country and a Welcome to Country
- ☐ The activity will not have any form of official formalities

Outline any additional Aboriginal cultural programming that will involve Aboriginal history and culture.

It is important to demonstrate consultation with the Tasmanian Aboriginal community. Please include letters confirming support or involvement as support material. For more information, please visit the City's Aboriginal Programs webpage or contact us.

Welcome to Country

A Welcome to Country is a cultural practice performed by a Traditional Owner of the local region to welcome visitors to their Traditional Country.

A local Aboriginal Land Council or Native Title representative body can advise or assist when making arrangements for a Welcome to Country. Traditional Owners may have a preference for a Welcome to Country and it is important that organisers ensure Traditional Owners are supported before and during their participation.
